Current ALASC Board

What is the ALASC?

The American Library Association Student Chapter (ALASC) at San José State University was founded on May 17, 1994, and is the 42nd official student chapter of the ALA.

The purpose of ALASC is to foster participation in the American Library Association and use of its publications, scholarships and conferences; to encourage scholarly achievement and professional awareness of national issues in library and information science; to provide a local forum for the exchange of ideas and information about trends, issues, and opportunities in the profession; to provide a supportive environment in which members can share their creativity, teach their skills, offer their experience, direct their expertise, and can learn from each other in a supportive milieu.

San Jose State University Student Chapter of the Association for Information Science and Technology

Who is SJSU ASIS&T?

ASIS&T is an international professional organization with over 4000 members worldwide who study and work in the information sciences. Members are librarians, academics, computer scientists, linguists, engineers, and scientists of all kinds whose practices involve the organization, retrieval, analysis, or management of information.

As the SJSU Student Chapter of ASIS&T, we strive to provide our members with frequent opportunities to connect to one another and to professionals in our chosen fields. We host speakers and events on a wide variety of topics of current interest to our peers, and we are always looking for new ways to connect and practice our professional and academic skills.

Why should you join?

- You can make connections with people, “on campus” and off,
 - You can develop your leadership abilities,
 - You can practice your public speaking,
 - You can learn new skills by attending events,
- You can get more experiences to put on your resume,
- You can see another side of the information profession,
 - and it’s fun!
