Hi Everyone,

With the Fall 2023 term drawing to a close, we wish you all the best as you wrap up this semester.

We hope that you take the time to rest, recover, and replenish your reserves during Winter Break and most of all - take stock and inventory of the lessons learned, skills obtained, and challenges overcome over the past term.

As we celebrate the holidays with family and friends, we want to express how grateful we are to be involved in this community with you all and for the significant role each one of us plays in creating a safe informative space for continued learning, growth, and information/idea exchange.

Wishing you all a wonderful holiday season!
